SCHEDULE A

Revenue Sharing Formula for AFLPA

AFLPA shall receive an additional distribution from the AFL in accordance with the following formula:

$$A = 1/3 * (B - C - D - $10 \text{ million})$$

Where:

A = payment to AFLPA

B = the sum of the AFL's Actual Revenues for 2007, 2008, 2009, 2010 and 2011 (excluding any contra (non-cash) items).

C = the sum of projected AFL Revenues for 2007, 2008, 2009, 2010 and 2011 as set out in the financial forecasts provided.

D = any reasonable increase in bona fide costs incurred by the AFL in 2007 – 2011 in generating increased AFL Revenues over and above those forecast. excluding any costs associated with the first $10 million of revenue (the exclusion of costs relating to the first $10 million of revenue shall be calculated by apportioning the total increase in costs across all revenue and then applying that percentage to allocate to the first $10 million).

For the purposes of calculating bona fide costs and Actual Revenues under this provision the parties shall disregard any cost incurred by the AFL which is of a nature that has been or would have been counted as a Club cost in 2006 and any revenues associated with those costs.

Note 1

The projected AFL Revenues for 2007, 2008, 2009, 2010 and 2011 for the purposes of C above are as set out below:

2007	$261.6m
2008	$269.7m
2009	$279.8m
2010	$287.3m
2011	$296.8m

Note 2:

AFLPA to separately share in 1/3 of the net distributions (after deducting all bona fide costs related to managing this fund) from the AFL Future Fund which will be payable in the year in which the distribution is made. As a result of the AFLPA sharing directly in Future Fund income, all revenue and costs related to the Future Fund will be excluded from the above revenue sharing formula except that the revenue from the AFL Future Fund will be taken into account when calculating the AFL revenue for the purposes set out in Note 3 below.

Note 3:

All revenue generated by the AFL Future Fund will be taken into account in the revenue figures for the first $10 million of AFL revenue to reach the payment threshold. Also as noted above there are to be no deductions for any costs incurred in relation to this revenue.

Note 4:

The parties shall at the conclusion of each of the Financial Years 2008, 2010 and 2011 make a pro rata calculation of A and where that calculation results in an additional amount to be distributed, the AFL shall, unless it is otherwise agreed, pay to the AFLPA for payment into the AFLPA Retirement Fund, such pro rata amount.

12.6 No Unjust Enrichment

Where an AFL Club employs a Player whose name has been delisted from the List of another AFL Club and where the terms of employment of such Player provide that the average of all payments which the Player would be entitled to earn over the whole of the period of the new contract is:

2008	$575
2009	$595
2010	$615
2011	$635

If an AFL Club enters into a contract with the Player that covers the period the Player trained with the Club and in respect to which the Player was entitled to receive payments under this clause, the payments the Player was entitled to may be taken into account in part satisfaction of the amounts due to the Player under the Player's contract. - (a) The AFL may use a Player’s Image for AFL Licensing Activities provided that the AFL has obtained the approval of the Player for each such Licensing Activity in accordance with clause 2 below.
- (b) A Player shall not unreasonably refuse to grant approval for the use of his Image in an AFL Licensing Activity.
- (c) A Player shall make himself available for one half day per fortnight during each year of the Term of the CBA save and except for periods of leave, to participate in bona fide appearances for development of the game of Australian Football as well as AFL and Club promotions. Such appearances shall be scheduled by Clubs or the AFL as the case may be and notified to the Player within a reasonable time prior to him being required to attend. The promotional activities for a Player’s AFL Club will not be part of the AFL Licensing Activity program.

- (d) A Player may use his own Image for personal promotional activities in accordance with clause 5 below.

2. PLAYER APPROVALS

(a) Automatic Player Approval

- (i) A Player is deemed to have given his approval for the use of his Image on the following range of AFL products: trading cards, stickers, posters, greeting cards, badges, mugs, DVD's/videos, team based computer games and other products as agreed from time to time.
- (ii) Whenever a Player's Image is to be used in accordance with clause 2(a)(i) above, the AFL shall notify the AFLPA of the intended use, including provision of the artwork/models prior production. The AFLPA shall notify the Player whose image is used in the product, confirm to the AFL that the Image has been used correctly and that the product is an "automatically approved" product as defined under clause 2(a)(i).

(b) Other Approvals

- (i) All approvals to the use of a Player's Image in AFL Licensing Activities will be co-ordinated by the AFL Licensing Department and the AFL Brand Managers and forwarded to the AFLPA using the attached standard form (Appendix "A").

The key contact at the AFL will be the AFL Brand Managers who will deal with Player related approvals, payments and communication.

- (ii) Approvals will be sought via the AFLPA and it will be the AFLPA's responsibility to contact either agents/managers, AFL Clubs or Players to obtain consents (save for in situations where existing or potential AFL Licensees have procured the consent of the Player directly to the use of the Player's Image as part of a product development plan). Players have no more than 7 business days to grant or refuse approval to the use of their Image. This will be done from the date the request is sent (either by fax or electronic transmission) from the AFL to the AFLPA. Should a response not be received by this time approval will be deemed to have been given and the AFL shall proceed without further notice.
- (iii) A Player cannot unreasonably withhold his approval to the use of his Image in AFL Licensing Activities. Consent will be deemed to have been withheld reasonably where:
- (A) the Player can demonstrate genuine personal, moral or ethical objection to the proposed use (including without limitation where the Licensing Activity relates to tobacco, drugs or alcohol); or

- (B) the use of the Player's Image is, in the reasonable opinion of the Player, detrimental to his reputation or inconsistent with a demonstrable brand strategy implemented on behalf of the Player; or
 - (C) the use of the Player's Image conflicts with existing personal arrangements that have been documented to the AFLPA; or
 - (D) where the Player is entitled to a commercial fee for the use of his Image, the fee proposed for such use is, in the Player's reasonable opinion, not a commercially appropriate fee taking into account the market for the product, the commercial rate historically paid for such use of a Player's Image, the reputation and standing of the Player and all other relevant commercial factors.
- (iv) Records of all approvals will be kept on file by the AFL for payment.
 - (v) For the purposes of marketing, advertising and promotional collateral:
 - (A) used or produced by the AFL and AFL Clubs; or
 - (B) used or produced by AFL corporate partners or AFL Club Protected Sponsors for leveraging sponsorship of the AFL or sponsorship of an AFL Club; or
 - (C) for AFL Licensees or retailers of AFL licensed commodities to promote AFL licensed commodities

("Marketing Activity"),

four (4) or more Players in the one game image equally represented constitutes a "marketing image" and, subject to the "featured player" rule set out below, will not require individual Player approval to be sought nor any commercial payment to be made, instead reverting to the category of "marketing image".

- (vi) Where the AFL seeks approval for the use of the Images of four (4) or more Players from different teams to be used together in an AFL Licensing Activity that is not a Marketing Activity (as defined above), the AFL will seek approval under the Multiple Player Image Program.
- (vii) The AFL will only seek approval for "featured" Players and not surrounding Players in a Multiple Player Image Program. A "featured" Player is a Player who is central or significant to the relevant Licensing Activity. For the purpose of clarification, the prominence of all other Players appearing in the image will be considered when determining whether a player is a "featured" player.
- (viii) For the purposes of use of a Player's Image by the AFL or an AFL corporate partner that is sourced from and used in visual footage (as compared to still images), the consent of a Player will not be required in the following circumstances:

- (A) when the Player is in the vision and is only incidental to the footage being used; or
 - (B) when the Player is featured in the vision and the vision is being assembled for a non-commercial purpose (eg. a highlights package for an awards night); or
 - (C) when the Player is “featured” in the clip and the clip is part of a sequence of footage assembled collectively comprising at least 8 separate clips per 30 seconds of footage containing featured players, and the Player that is featured:
 - (I) is not represented to any greater extent than other featured Players; and
 - (II) does not have an existing personal arrangement which conflicts with the use of the visual footage.
- (ix) The parties acknowledge that any use of a Player’s Image:
- (A) in sales promotion activities by AFL corporate partners; or
 - (B) in representative contexts (excluding promotion of the All Australian Team by the AFL or an AFL Sponsor in accordance with clause 22.4) shall require approval of the Player in accordance with this clause 2(b).

3. FINANCES

- (a) The AFL Licensing Department will pay Players for the use of their Images as set out in Appendix B — Breakdown of AFL Licensing Categories. The forecast amounts will be detailed in the request for approval form. This will encourage a “user pays” system, as compared to a flat fee structure. Payments to Players will be managed by the AFLPA.
- (b) Reports to Players will be sent to the AFLPA quarterly for disbursement. The reports shall be provided to the AFLPA within 45 days of the end of the relevant quarter. Disbursement will also be made quarterly.
- (c) Payments to the AFLPA under these programs will be paid quarterly.
- (d) The AFL will pay the AFLPA for all Player activity.
- (e) Net receipts from AFL Licensing Activities will be distributed as follows:

 - (ii) the use of Player Image in a Club Program using 4 or more players from the same team in one image will result in 100% of Net Receipts being distributed to the AFL;
 - (iii) the AFL will remit 80% of Net Receipts from AFL Licensing Activities involving AFL licensed commodities:
 - (a) featuring between 1 and 24 Players; and
 - (b) featuring multiple individual Player Images from more than 1 Club to collectively make a licensed commodity (eg-calendar).

4. MEMORABILIA

- (a) The AFL will consider all applications submitted by or on behalf of a Player for an AFL licence to manufacture, sell and/or distribute a Player based memorabilia product (which application must be in the standard form required by the AFL from time to time), provided such application does not pertain to the Brownlow or Grand Final medals. The AFL will not unreasonably withhold its approval of such applications and will consider the following factors when assessing applications:
 - (i) market demand;
 - (ii) market saturation;
 - (iii) design capabilities;
 - (iv) distribution capabilities;
 - (v) financial (current and historical) stability and company structure; and
 - (vi) previous experience in category.

- (b) The parties agree to review the arrangements in place in respect of Player based memorabilia programs by June 2008. SCHEDULE J

Player Injury Payments

Working Party Terms of Reference

1. Background

It is acknowledged that AFL players as professional sportspersons are not, as a general rule, covered by workers compensation legislation which provides compensation (in the form of weekly payments and lump sum compensation) to employees who are incapacitated from working as a result of an illness or injury sustained in the course of that employee's employment.

Whatever be the merits of the exclusion, the effect is that compensation for players who are incapacitated from playing has been regulated, as a general rule, by the provisions of successive Collective Bargaining Agreements. Whether players had separate entitlements under player contracts prior to the first CBA in 1993 is not known.

Since 1993, the compensation payments for injured players has been based around the principle that a player would be entitled to a payment for each match missed through injury at the rate for the competition in which the injury was suffered or at the rate for the competition in the player played immediately prior to suffering the injury.

The principal prerequisite was that the player suffered the injury:

- (i) playing football in a game;
- (ii) at official training sessions; or
- (iii) attending official club duties at the direction of the Club.

The basic structure referred to in the preceding two paragraphs has been continued through the successive CBA's.

It is however interesting to note that in both the 1993 and 1998 CBA's compensation payments applied to illnesses that satisfied any one of the principal prerequisites.

The principal prerequisites have had added to them where the injury was suffered "by attending an official AFL Club function".

The other major changes have been as follows:

- (a) the increase in the maximum number of matches the benefit extended to from 20 matches in 1993 to 30 matches in 1998. The benefit under the 1993 CBA was at the full match rate for up to 10 matches and 50% of the match rate for up to a further 10 matches;
- (b) the changes to the scope of the definition of game (which is referred to in the 1998 and 2003 CBA to Match); and
- (c) deeming the rate for specified Matches as the same rate for a Match played in the AFL Premiership Season.

The changes referred to in (c) above effectively mean that if a player is injured:

- (A) in an Exhibition Match;

- (B) in a State Body competition match (where the player played in the last match in the AFL competition);
- (C) in a State Body competition match on a weekend where the AFL Club is not playing and where the player's previous match was in a Match in the AFL Competition;
- (D) in a match in the Pre-season Competition;
- (E) in a representative match organised by or conducted under the auspices of the AFL; or
- (F) in a State Body competition match within two weeks of returning from an injury suffered in a Match in the AFL Competition.

then he is entitled to be paid at the same rate as is applicable to a Match played in the AFL Premiership Season.

2. Role of Working Party

To develop recommendations/proposals for the consideration of the AFL and AFLPA regarding the provision of more equitable injury payment provisions having regard to the propensity of AFL players to play in matches at both AFL and State Body organised levels and the scope the definition of "injury" should cover.

3. Timeframe

The timeframe for the establishment of the Working Party, its deliberations and the making of its report will be as follows:

- (a) The AFL and AFLPA shall each nominate no more than 3 representatives for the working party by no later than 1 May 2007;
- (b) The Working Party shall commence its deliberations within 14 days of being formed.
- (c) Each member shall, so far as practicable, be required to give priority to the deliberations of the Working Party. Time is of the essence in the workings of the Working Party.
- (d) The Working Party shall produce a draft report for the consideration of the AFL and AFLPA by 1 August 2007.
- (e) The AFL and AFLPA may within 21 days of receipt of the draft report request the Working Party to provide further details or expand on aspects of the draft report. The Working Party shall provide the further requested information within 14 days of the request.
- (f) The AFL and AFLPA shall consider the Final Report and endeavour to negotiate an agreement on matters dealt with/identified in the Final Report.
- (g) In the event that an agreement cannot be reached, either party can apply to an independent arbitrator (to be appointed in accordance with the provision of clause 4.5) to have the matter/s arbitrated.
- (h) The Arbitrator in determining the matter/s:

- (i) is not bound to act in a formal manner, and is not bound by the rules of evidence but must inform him/herself on any matter as consider just;
- (ii) must act according to equity, good conscience and the substantial merits of the case, without regard, to technicalities and legal form.
